

Indiana has a no call law that regulates telemarketing and it is working very well. Please do not fix it cause it ain't broke. Any change you would make now would be superfluous. I am enjoying not receiving telemarketing calls at all and I do not want selected calls comming to my home at any time, day or night. Thank you.